

Planning Ahead and Being Prepared Seminars

Come join us for a dinner & discussion, as we share valuable information and discussion opportunities that will help with end-of-life planning

Things that really matter

These informative seminars - Dinner & Discussion - are offered to provide information regarding planning ahead and end-of-life decision options. The seminars will offer dinner and in-person discussion opportunities focusing on various services that Hamilton Municipal Cemeteries provide and include other speakers and partners to assist with end-of-life decisions

All too often the death of a loved one is an experience filled with anxiety and swift decisions. But it doesn't have to be this way.

Hamilton Municipal Cemeteries hosts educational seminars to give you the information you need to PLAN AHEAD AND BE PREPARED.

There is NO cost and NO pressure – just the opportunity to be educated and enlightened, and learn about the peace of mind that comes with advance planning.

The Planning Ahead & Being Prepared Seminar is a comprehensive event designed to assist individuals and families in making informed decisions about end-of-life arrangements. This seminar aims to provide valuable information, guidance, and resources to help attendees plan for their future and ensure that their final wishes are honored.

- Explore the importance of pre-planning for cemetery and funeral arrangements.
- Discuss the various options available for burial, including traditional plots, cremation, and natural burials.

- Encourage open discussions among family members about end-of-life preferences.
- Explain the importance of creating a will and advanced healthcare directives.
- Offer guidance on estate planning.

By attending the Planning Ahead Seminar for cemeteries, participants will gain the knowledge and tools needed to make informed decisions, ensuring a sense of peace and security for themselves and their loved ones in the future.
